2016—2017 LSI Officers and Chairmen

President's Message

Submitted by:
President
Crystal Rivera

I was pleased to see several SLSA members at LSI's May 2016 Annual Conference in Santa Rosa. Some members just came for the day or part of the day to attend LSI workshops and/or LSS Seminars.

If you consider running for office of our association or LSI, I would strongly suggest that you try to attend the officer/chairman workshops that are offered at conference. These workshops are included in the basic registration fee. It's also a way to network with other officers/chairmen. You get a lot of information and great handouts. I usually leave these workshops all excited with the ideas that have been shared for marketing and promoting our association and LSI. Then, I go back to work and reality hits me in the face – reminds me that I don't have enough time. Why are there not enough hours in the day?

At this year's annual conference, SLSA won several contests and awards. Also, our very own Lynne Prescott, CCLS, was installed as LSI Executive Secretary for 2016-2017! She will also continue as LSI Treasurer until someone else is nominated and elected.

SLSA was in a different category this year; we usually are in competition with only one other association – San Diego LSA. This year SLSA was competing with several other associations, and competition was fierce. We were on pins and needles waiting to see who won first place in the Chapter Achievement Contest, the Bulletin Contest, the History/Scrapbook Contest, the Membership Gain Contest, etc. And we were surprised (well, not really when you know how hard she works) at the winner of LSI's President's Award. The President only presents that award at Annual Conference and to only one person and it is a BIG deal! I'm not going to "spoil" anything else, so you have to read our Governor and Conference Delegates' reports.

Hope to see you at August Conference, which will be in Rancho Cordova.

Governor's Report

Submitted by:
Governor

SLSA rocked Annual Conference this year! Thank you to delegates Anne French, Brenda Bracy, CCLS, and Corene Rodder for representing SLSA at the Board of Governors Meeting. Congratulations to Lynne Prescott, CCLS; Dawn R. Forgeur, CCLS; Corene Rodder; and Brenda Bracy, CCLS. Continue reading and you will see why.

I, along with 13 other SLSA members attended LSI's 82nd Annual Conference, May 19-22, 2016, at the Flamingo Conference Resort & Spa in Santa Rosa, CA, hosted by Marin County LPA and San Francisco LPA. The theme was "Hooray for LSI – A Tribute to Hollywood." The Flamingo was built in 1957 in an art nouveau style (that remains to this day) replicating its long ago demolished counterpart in Las Vegas. The lobby hallway walls were dotted with framed black and white photographs of various movie stars cavorting about the grounds, pool, and lounge. Considering the Conference theme, the resort was ideal. I was surprised I did not see an apparition or two. Hotel clerks and staff alike were accommodating and courteous. The hotel even hosted an evening wine tasting and a morning continental brunch. All in all a good time was had by all.

Saturday morning's Pre-Board of Governors Meeting was called to order at 8:00 a.m.; 29 governors were present and we had a quorum. The February 2016 Quarterly Conference Board of Governors Meeting Minutes were timely mailed and approved as corrected. There was a recommendation that the CAMS contract be voted upon at the Post-Board of Governors meeting. There was no unfinished business, no new business, no announcements, and we adjourned at 8:20 a.m.

Annual Conference Board of Governors Meeting was called to order on Saturday, May 19, 2016 at 10:08 a.m.; 82 delegates were registered; 81 were present; 1 was absent.

The Inspirational Message was read by Mary S. Rocca, CCLS, who read the poem "The Dash." You may already be familiar with it - I was. The poem has been enjoyed by millions around the world, written by Linda Ellis, and copyrighted in 1996. It refers to the date on one's tombstone; first, the date of birth, the dash, and the date of death. Hence, the dash represents the time we have spent on earth. How have you or how will you spend your dash? Think about it.

Our keynote speaker was The Honorable Andy Wick who became quite sentimental talking about the importance of legal secretaries and his appreciation of us. Judge Wick told us we have very stressful jobs and the objective is to de-stress. He discussed the issues of stress on attorneys and secretaries alike and urged us all to take care of ourselves, look for warning signs, and take heed. On a more positive note, Judge Wick advised that Mayor John Sawyer sent his regards via a letter with a City Council Proclamation commending the Officers and Chairmen of LSI proclaiming May 20, 21, and 22, 2016 as Legal Secretaries, Inc. Day. Everyone was elated.

Treasurer, Lynne Prescott, CCLS, made a motion that the actions of the Treasurer in paying the routine bills during the Fourth Quarter of the fiscal year 2016-2017 be ratified. The Motion carried.

Although they have not “fine-tuned” their theme or event title, they are gearing the festivities around what Modesto is best known for, and that is American Graffiti, cruising, and the home of George Lucas. You might want to dust off your poodle skirts and saddle shoes if ya got em’ – just sayin’.

The CCLS Certifying Board Chair reported: (1) currently there are 241 active CCLSes, 28 inactive, 8 attorneys, and 114 retired CCLSes; (2) 37 people sat for the CCLS exam and 12 passed. 1,546 members including MALs on April 15, 2015; and (2) Discussion on the status of El Dorado County LPA and Trinity County LSA. Neither Association has paid their per capita; however, there is no discussion as to dissolution at this time. There was no unfinished business, no new business, and we adjourned at approximately 3:45 p.m. to scurry off to our various seminars and gussy up for Saturday night banquet.

At banquet, Sacramento LSA was awarded First Place in the Chapter Achievement contest in our category. More on that in my Chapter Achievement Chat. Even more importantly, the very prestigious LSI President's Award was awarded to LSI Legal Specialization Section Leader and SLISA member, Dawn R. Forgeur, CCLS, for providing outstanding assistance and support to the LSI President and to LSI. Those of us at the table were thrilled for her. Kudos to you Dawn and congratulations!

Sunday morning's session was called to order at 10:00 a.m.; 82 delegates were registered; 73 delegates were present; 9 were absent. EC Recommendation No. 1 to continue LSI's administration contract with CAMS previously approved at Governor's Luncheon was passed. There were two bids for February 2018 Quarterly Conference: Orange County LSA and San Diego LSA. With a standing vote of 25 in favor and 7 against, Orange County LSA won the bid. Delegates' Reports

Vice President
Brenda Bracy,
CCLS

Thank you for electing me to be one of the delegates representing SLSA at LSI's 82nd Annual Conference held at the Flamingo Conference Resort & Spa in Santa Rosa, California. This was my first time attending an annual conference. It was a great experience and I enjoyed meeting other legal professionals from all over the state and attending various meetings and workshops.

Saturday morning we attended the opening ceremony by LSI President Mary J. Beadrow, CCLS, and were called to order at 9:30 a.m. Session 1 began with the Report of the Registrar. The Registrar noted 82 delegates were registered, 1 delegate was absent, and we had a quorum. Presentation of the Colors was performed by Civil Air Patrol, Empire Composite, Squadron 157. The Pledge of Allegiance was led by LSI Past President Patricia E. Miller, PLS, CCLS. The new CCLSes were recognized.

Introduction of the keynote speaker was by LSI Past President Diana E. Estabrook, PLS. The speaker was the Honorable Andy Wick, Sonoma County Superior Court. Judge Wick had been in private practice for 26 years before becoming a judge and was always willing to be a speaker. He was appointed to the bench in 2006.

Judge Wick gave a very moving speech about the role we play as legal assistants and at one point was moved to tears when describing the many years he had worked with his own legal assistant. Judge Wick stated that secretaries are the backbone of the legal profession. He told us to always watch for stress in people around you. There was a local attorney who had recently passed away, and no one had noticed how stressed he had been prior to his death. Judge Wick was a great speaker and you could tell he had nothing but respect for legal secretaries and the role we play in the legal field.

Judge Wick then stated the Mayor of Santa Rosa, John Sawyer, could not attend the Conference as he was busy with a local parade. However, he read a very moving letter from Mayor Sawyer on behalf of the City Council of Santa Rosa.

LSI President Mary Beadrow, CCLS, introduced LSI Past Presidents, and stated that 50 years ago the annual Conference was held at the Flamingo and the then LSI President Patricia Brady was in attendance today. The remaining LSI Past Presidents were then introduced and dismissed for a special luncheon.

After a short break, we reported back with the Registrar noting 82 delegates registered, 2 delegates absent, and we had a quorum. Conference Standing Rules and Conference Election Rules were adopted. The 2015 Official Program was adopted as amended. 2015 Annual Conference Minutes were approved. A committee was appointed to review the 2016 Conference Minutes. Correspondence was read by LSI Treasurer Lynne Prescott, CCLS, regarding $350 donated to the Eula May Scholarship Fund. Reports of the LSI's elected officers were then read.

We then recessed for lunch. SLSA members elected to not attend the CCLS Luncheon, and instead we went to lunch at Johnny Garlic's to celebrate my recent passing of the CCLS exam. I was truly honored for all who attended lunch with us. The food was great and the company was even better.

After lunch we reported for Session 2 with the same number of delegates registered and 1 delegate absent. We had a quorum.

It was announced that the 83rd Annual Conference will be hosted by Stanislaus County LPA. The Annual Reports of the Committee Chairmen were read. There was no new or unfinished business to be discussed and we adjourned.

That afternoon I attended the Civil Litigation Section Seminar – Federal Subpoenas hosted by Jim Ayer of Titan Legal Services. He was a good speaker and gave us a nice handout.

Saturday evening we attended the banquet with the theme of “A Tribute to Hollywood.” Everyone was dressed fancy for the event. Awards were given for the Scrapbooking contest and the History Book contest. SLSA received first place for our Scrapbook. Great job Corene Rodder.

At the CCLS luncheon the new CCLSes were given beautiful wrist corsages to wear at the banquet. The CCLSes were then introduced and were given their certificates. After we received our certificates, the room erupted in applause, giving us a standing ovation and took many pictures. It made us feel quite special. I was truly honored with the amount of recognition we were given all day on Saturday. Everyone had a great time at the banquet.

This year's annual conference was held in Santa Rosa at the Flamingo Conference Resort and Spa. It was a beautiful venue with a nostalgic feel of the Rat Pack era.

Friday morning of the conference started out with various workshops. I attended the legal secretarial training workshop. There was a lot of discussion regarding continuing education for legal secretaries and the importance of being a mentor to new legal secretaries coming into the field. I'm sure many of you still remember the early beginnings of your career and how overwhelming it was to learn the rules and nuances of your area of law, let alone, the quirks of the attorney you were supporting.

During the workshop, discussion regarding a book called Litigation By the Numbers by Julie Goren came up as an excellent reference book for legal secretaries. Julie Goren started out as a legal secretary and eventually moved on to become an attorney. This is an excellent reference book for those who may be new to litigation or perhaps not familiar with litigation, especially regarding calendaring.

Friday evening was the meet and greet in which the theme was Star Wars. Many conference attendees came dressed as their favorite Star Wars character. There was a lot of creativity in the costumes that were worn at the event. The hosting associations had a great selection of appetizers and snacks during the event while everyone relaxed and visited with friends from different associations. Friday was a great kick off to the conference weekend.

Thank you for electing me to be one of the delegates representing SLSA at the 2016 LSI Annual Conference held at the Flamingo Resort in Santa Rosa, CA. This is my third time attending an annual conference. It is always nice to see other legal professionals from all over the state and attend the different meetings and workshops.

I was happy to see all the different bulletins submitted for the annual contest. I am always amazed at the variety of styles and formats. In our category (E – 66 to 150 members) we received Second place in a close race. Orange County LSA took first place with 336 points; Sacramento LSA was second with 326 points; and San Francisco LPA was third with 309 points.

Sunday was a wonderful day beginning with the delegates registering in the ballroom. The executive board was installed and then the chairmen were appointed. The installing officer, Mary S. Rocca, CCLS, LSI Past President 2004-2006 and a member of Alameda County LSA, introduced each of the executive board members as a piece of the movie making industry. They are: President, Jennifer L. Page, CCLS, Marin County LPA; Vice President, Heather Edwards; San Fernando Valley LSA; Executive Secretary, Lynne Prescott, CCLS; Sacramento LSA. There were no properly credentialed nominations from the floor for Treasurer; and, so, Lynne Prescott, CCLS, will do double duty and also remain as Treasurer with the help of the Executive Board until such time as a Treasurer is named.

Sandra Jimenez, CCLS, presented a monetary gift to President Mary Beaudrow, CCLS. After President Mary Beaudrow, CCLS, gave her thank you speech, she then gave the floor to President Jennifer L. Page, CCLS, to announce the chairmen. Two of our very own association members stepped up as chairmen: Dawn Forgeur, CCLS, Legal Specialization Sections Coordinator, and Tammy Hunt, CCLS, Law Office Administration Section Leader.

Next came the announcements of the “People’s Award” for the History Book and the Scrap Book. We won! It is not judged like the bulletins. The scrapbooks are voted on by the attendees of the conference. Congratulations to everyone that contributed to our success.

There was no new business. Among the announcements from the host associations for the next two annual conferences, the next quarterly conference was announced for August 19-21, 2016, in Rancho Cordova. The theme will be “Celebrating Local Associations.” I hope to see you there!

We ended with the closing song “Till We Meet Again.” I encourage each of our members to attend a conference. You have the opportunity to learn so much from our membership. Corene

Vocabulary

Attribute	Database programs have the capability to limit and define what information can be entered into a specific field in a computer form.
Bibliographic Indexing (BI) or Objective Coding	The recognition of certain fields of information, such as the author, date, addressee, and the like.
Clawback Agreement	To limit the cost of reviewing the significant volumes of electronic information and try to prevent the waiver of inadvertent disclosure of privileged information, both parties to a dispute agree in writing that inadvertent production of privileged materials will not automatically constitute a waiver of privilege. If the producing party realizes the disclosure in a reasonable time, he can request the documents be returned and the other party must comply.
Deduplication	The process of separating duplicate e-mail messages, word processing documents, and other computer files from the electronic file collection.
Ephemeral Data	Temporary information that exists for a brief period, such as data stored in RAM or in cache.
Fuzzy Search	This technique locates words that closely match the spelling of the primary word.
Hashing	The process of generating a value from a computer file, a section of a storage disk, or a whole disk, and then, recorded.
Infrared Technology	Invisible radiation wavelengths.
Metadata	Hidden or embedded data.
Native File	File format used by a specific software application.
Quick Peek	In this type of arrangement, the requesting party is allowed to see his opponent's entire data set before production, even the privilege data. The requester identifies relevant information from his opponent's mass of information. The producing party then extracts privileged information from the now smaller set, which has already been reviewed by the requesting party, and turns over his responsive documents and a privilege log.
Relational Database	The storing of information in a collection of tables, each table storing information about one subject. A table is divided into rows and columns. These tables can be related for business or other informational purposes by using "keys."
Steganography	The science of hiding the existence of a message within another message or computer file.
Virtualization	The creation of a virtual (as opposed to actual) version of an operating system, a server, a storage device, processors, or other network resources.

Mandatory Settlement Conference Week October 24 – 28, 2016

SAN BERNARDINO—The Superior Court of California, County of San Bernardino, Civil Division, will host a Mandatory Settlement Conference Week, during the week of October 26 – 30, 2016.

This Mandatory Settlement Conference Week is being held to assist litigants in resolving their cases prior to trial. In partnership with volunteer attorneys throughout the County, the court will set mandatory settlement conferences (MSC) during this week-long event. Settlement conferences are an excellent alternative to trial and allow all parties to reach a mutual resolution for the benefit of all.

Please take further notice, that if any party to an action is interested in participating and has not been given notice of a MSC date, or if you have any questions regarding Mandatory Settlement Conference Week, please contact the civil clerk's office at (909) 708-8678 as soon as possible to make arrangements.

In order to prepare fully for this Mandatory Settlement Conference, upon receiving your Notice of Hearing, please take note of the following requirements:

- Briefs must be submitted five (5) days prior to each scheduled settlement conference and must be filed in the department;
- All persons with settlement authority must be present, i.e., plaintiff, trial counsel, insurance company representatives, etc.;

PRESS RELEASE

July 18, 2016

COURT SELF-HELP CENTER SERVICES AVAILABLE IN SALINAS EFFECTIVE JULY 18, 2016

The Monterey County Superior Court is pleased to announce the expansion of the Self-Help Center (SHC) to Salinas. The new Salinas SHC office is located on the 1st floor, in Room #172 at the Salinas Courthouse, 240 Church Street. Hours of operation are each Monday and Friday from 8:00 am to 4:00 pm.

The expansion of SHC services to Salinas will provide greater convenience to self-represented litigants who live in remote areas of Monterey County who need assistance with family law and other civil case document preparation. The Salinas SHC will lessen the impact of long distance travel and should provide time and cost savings for residents who otherwise may face up to 100 roundtrip miles to access in-person document preparation assistance. SHC services in Salinas will mirror the assistance provided at the Monterey SHC office, where legal and support staff effectively guide self-represented litigants with document preparation review and conduct workshops in select court matters.

Assistance is available with divorce, nullity, legal separation, limited civil cases, guardianships, name changes, emancipation, landlord/tenant, step-parent adoptions, limited conservatorships and domestic violence, and civil harassment restraining orders. SHC services will also continue to be provided at the Monterey Courthouse located at 1200 Aguajito R.d. in Monterey. Both locations provide SHC assistance in both English and Spanish.

Court Executive Officer Teresa A. Risi said, "Our goal as a Court is to continue to enhance access to the justice system for all community members. Representing yourself in court can be an intimidating process, particularly when you're not certain what to expect or what steps are necessary to resolve your dispute. I'm delighted that self-represented litigants will now have access to in-person assistance in both Monterey and Salinas provided by the Self-Help Center."

The mission of the Court is to dispense justice in all matters within its jurisdiction in an impartial manner and in accordance with the law.

BARSTOW COURTHOUSE TO OFFER NEEDLES RESIDENTS ADDITIONAL SERVICES STARTING AUGUST 1, 2016

Effective August 1, 2016, the Superior Court of California, County of San Bernardino, Barstow District, will begin hearing Small Claims and Landlord Tenant matters from the Needles jurisdiction. The Court will coordinate these dates to coincide with the Victor Valley Transit Authority (VVTA) Friday bus service via the VVTA Route 200 Needles Link from Needles to Barstow. This will allow Needles residents to attend Traffic, Small Claims, and Landlord Tenant hearings at the Barstow Courthouse.

This ongoing collaboration between the San Bernardino Superior Court, VVTA, and San Bernardino County 1st District Supervisor Robert Lovingood, is part of the Court's continuing effort to restore services that were reduced over the last several years during challenging budgetary times.

VVTA Route 200 will make one round-trip each Friday, departing from Needles, traveling to Barstow and Victorville courthouses in the morning and returning to Needles in the afternoon. See the attached previously issued press release for transportation details.

All Needles Small Claims and Landlord Tenant case cases filed prior to August 1, 2016 shall remain assigned to the Joshua Tree Courthouse.
